Dreadful Homicide. An awful homicide was committed in this county, about 16 miles south Spencer Reeves, upon the body of his sister. Reeves said he was going to Mexico, and threatened to take one of the horses with him, and went to the stable for the purpose of getting it. His sister followed, to prevent him from taking the horse; and not returning within a reasonable time, her mother became uneasy, and went to the stable in search of her, where she found her daughter with her head cut nearly off, and a cutting knife lying by her side-the instrument, no doubt, with which the deed was perpetrated; and Spencer, the son, had gone off with one of the horses. One of the neighbors was immediately sent for, and after ascertaining the cause of the alarm, he started in pursuit of Reeves, following him in the direction of Hillsborough. Upon reaching this place, he informed the Sheriff, who started out with two Deputies to search the town for him. He was soon arrested, and next morning was examined before two Justices of the Peace, and committed Hillsborough Recorder. for trial.
